Stay Alive Share book recommendations with your friends

Stay Alive by Simon Kernick ; it does what it says on the tin. This book is all about survival, survival of the innocent and the not so innocent. The thing is no one is safe, you never quite know what s going to happen, who s going to be shot and who s lucky enough to come through the ordeal unscathed.

Stay Alive 1 Crash by Joseph Monninger NOOK Book

The premise in this first adventure in the Stay Alive series feels familiar and cannot claim the originality or authenticity of Gary Paulsen's Hatchet (1987); neither does it show the careful characterization and scene setting of the author's own books for teens. A small plane plummets into a remote lake in Alaska.

Reasons to Stay Alive by Matt Haig Goodreads

With REASONS TO STAY ALIVE, I'd passed the 50-page mark before I remembered to take a view, and by then I was down the rabbit-hole. Matt Haig is a marvellous writer: limpid; tender; passionate. In this memoir (and it's short, barely 200 pages long), he manages to articulate, both the bleakness of depression and the means o I received an ARC of this book from Canongate.

Stay Alive 1 Crash Book Review and Ratings by Kids

I liked this book because when you think about survival books everyone goes crazy and turns on each other but in this book every one worked together to stay alive when their only food was lollipops and turned working hard to be saved a way to enjoy the lollipops.
