Immanuel Kant The Proceedings of the Friesian School

Immanuel Kant (1724-1804) Kant's most original contribution to philosophy is his "Copernican Revolution," that, as he puts it, it is the representation that makes the object possible rather than the object that makes the representation possible [14, A92/B124, note]. This introduced the human mind as an active originator of experience rather than just a passive recipient of perception.
