A gold digger isn't someone who finds a target and bleeds them dry. A gold digger is someone who finds someone with money and expects to be lavished in material goods. The last thing you want to do is find an average Joe and take him for all he's worth. That just isn't right. And make sure he or she is unmarried, too. You don't want to be the other man or woman in addition to being a gold digger that's just bad karma.

That said, to be a good gold-digger, you need: 1. Charm. One cannot stress this enough. A gold-digger needs to be attractive, but not necessarily physically so. Not always. But she cannot dispense with charm, with social graces, with presentability. That said, I do recall Cora Pearl, the famous courtesan.

A Gold Diggers Guide by Baje Fletcher Goodreads

I reckon this book gives advice about female success in a detailed and practical way. I recommend to read this book together with The Power of the Pussy by Kara King. Back to the topic, this book can be a good beginning guide for girls want to gain things (wealth, life lessons or even small stuffs), more opportunities from men, or even for those who want to get easier in relationship and socialising.
