World War Z Summary Shmoop

The world is irrevocably changed from the zombie invasion, but the Interviewer ends his story on one of those bittersweet notes readers are so fond of. Although the people have suffered a great tragedy, they can now pick up the pieces of their lives and hopefully live on in a post-zombie apocalyptic world, which isn't as bad as it sounds. Honestly.

Amazon com World War Z An Oral History of the Zombie War

It mainly just shares a title and a skeleton of the story, kind of like reading The Serpent and the Rainbow and then seeing the movie by the same name. I would love to see World War Z made into a TV mini series and faithfully adapted, with each episode introduced at the start of the person being interviewed and showing their own personal story.
