Don't Pray in Circles Tim Challies

Praying in circles is fast becoming a thing in some Evangelical churches. People have been taught to draw circles around the things they want, or even to walk in circles around the things they are sure the Lord ought to grant them. In either case, they are to pray around those things and in that way to claim them for the Lord. The inspiration, I suppose, is Mark Batterson and his book The

The Circle Maker Praying Circles Around Your Biggest

The circle metaphor is applied loosely throughout the book (e.g., walking in prayer circles, praying in a group, praying repeatedly for a concern), making it accessible in multiple situations. At times Batterson's excitement manifests as cutesy bumper sticker like phrases, and he spends much of the book recounting his own church's
