Firefly Lane A Novel Kristin Hannah Susan Ericksen

Firefly Lane is my first book by her (sad, isn't?) and I will never forget it. In my honest opinion, it's a powerful (there goes that word again) display of women's fiction. Firefly Lane tells the story of two girls, both dealing with their own pain, who bring their guard down long enough to become best friends.

Firefly Lane Firefly Lane 1 by Kristin Hannah

Firefly Lane tells the story of two girls who become best friends at age 14. It follows them for over 30 years, from the 1970s into the 2000s. The book doesn't break any new ground, really.

Firefly Lane by Kristin Hannah Paperback Barnes Noble

After reading the very positive reviews of Firefly Lane, I bought the book and was excited to dive in. Midway through the book (when the main characters were adults) Tully and Kate became so one dimensional and extreme that I no longer cared about them, their issues and how the story ended.

Book review Kristin Hannah's Firefly Lane

Firefly Lane reads like a slightly above average romance. Hannah is a bestselling author per The New York Times , but I suspect this is not her best novel. Other recent titles include Magic Hour , Comfort and Joy and Distant Shores .
