Hiking in the West Section of Saguaro National Park

There are no backcountry campsites in the Tucson Mountain district of Saguaro National Park since it is small in area, and the longest single trail is 10 miles - well within the range of a day hike. For a comparatively small region the paths are quite varied, and lead to mountain peaks, along dry washes, to an old mine, to a group of petroglyphs, or mostly, just wind through dense growths of
