The Lighthouse P D James Complete Review

The Lighthouse is a very satisfying read, especially in its build-up. James has a nice touch in presenting the different characters, including the familiar police officers possibly moving on to new stages in their lives.

THE LIGHTHOUSE by P D James Kirkus Reviews

James doesn't stint on the old-fashioned complications of mechanics and motives. But her most telling details are the quietest a police record, a lost vial of blood, a tag from Christopher Marlowe, a telltale cough each of which will take its place in the resolution.

The Lighthouse An Adam Dalgliesh Mystery book review

I've always enjoyed reading P.D. James mystery novels, though I haven't found the time to read the last few.

Thus I came to The Lighthouse unfamiliar with the current status of some of the characters.
