Catton's books also served as a basis for Ken Burns The Civil War documentary. Mr. Lincoln's Army, the first volume in Catton's series, The Potomac Trilogy, describes the history of the beginning years of the Civil War and Lincoln's decision to choose George B. McClellan to lead the Union Army after the secession of the Southern States. Lincoln had a complicated relationship with McClellan, partially to do with the General's belief that Lincoln was not fit to be commander in chief.
