Outsourcing Wikipedia

Outsourcing is "an agreement in which one company hires another company to be responsible for an existing internal activity." It often involves the contracting of a business process (e.g., payroll processing, claims processing), operational, and/or non-core functions, such as manufacturing, facility management, call center support). The term "outsourcing" came from "outside resourcing" and

Out of Contract Time to move on from the love in with

The pressure on government departments, public bodies and local government to outsource public services has intensified since the 2010 election. This growing trend towards contracting out is largely being driven by fiscal austerity and the relentless search for budget savings. But also by the Conservative Party's deep-rooted belief in marketisation, privatisation and desire for a [ ]
