Murder in Thrall Doyle and Acton Scotland Yard Series 1

Murder in Thrall is an absolutely exquisite reading experience. I love everything about this book from the very first page until the last sentence. Acton and Doyle are a wonderful, albeit unusual, husband and wife detective team.

Murder In Thrall ANNE CLEELAND

Doyle was never to discover the purpose of his visit because the aforesaid witness, a man named Capper, had neatly given her the slip. He had thought to show her the tack room as a likely place to search for evidence, all the while expressing his profound shock at the horse trainer's murder.

Murder in Thrall Audiobook by Anne Cleeland Audible com

What made the experience of listening to Murder in Thrall the most enjoyable? Very well written. Suspenseful, sometimes funny with very interesting and imperfect characters. I can't wait to read the next one "Murder in Retribution." What was one of the most memorable moments of Murder in Thrall? The epilogue was very clever.

Murder in Thrall by Anne Cleeland LibraryThing

Murder in Thrall is told from Doyle's point of view, and she's an interesting blend of intelligence, intuition, and naiveté. This leaves DCI Michael Sinclair very much in the shadows or at least I thought in the beginning that it did.
