Humor in Freud Wikipedia

Freud's theory of humor. In Freud's view, jokes (the verbal and interpersonal form of humor) happened when the conscious allowed the expression of thoughts that society usually suppressed or forbade. The superego allowed the ego to generate humor. A benevolent superego allowed a light and comforting type of humor, while a harsh superego created a biting and sarcastic type of humor.

Humor Sphere Funny is Contagious

Cocaine has become a rather polarizing subject, which makes it rather a big topic in today's popular media.

Cocaine is even present in a lot of jokes throughout the internet, from Arnold Schwarzenegger's Cocainum to any white powdery substance being immediately labeled as cocaine, yes, even snow has been compared to it! But actual cocaine abuse arises when things stop being light
