Savages by Shirley Conran Goodreads Share book

Savages has got to be the same book that I remember from fifteen years ago, the plot is the same. But, the writing style and the details as the plot is fleshed out are so very different than I remember!

Savages A Novel Don Winslow Amazon com Books

Savages has been out a while, so I won't summarize the plot. It's been done. I'd read Winslow's Neal Carey series years ago and really liked them, but this is a whole new game.

Savages by Don Winslow Paperback Barnes Noble

Savages will jolt Mr. Winslow into a different league .[his]most boisterously stylish crime book, his gutsiest and most startling bid for attention .full of wild-card moves .its wisecracks are so sharp, its characters so mega-cool and its storytelling so ferocious that the risks pay off, thanks especially to Mr. Winslow's no-prisoners sense of humor .The Winslow effect is to fuse the grave and the playful, the body blow and the joke, the nightmare and the pipe dream.

The Savages by Matt Whyman Goodreads Share book

This book is a darkly comedic book about a family of cannibals, though they would prefer to be called 'evolved eaters'. We are told from the very start of the book that there was a police investigation going on into the Savages in the present and the actual story itself is told in the past.

Book review 'Savages' by Don Winslow latimes

I'm of two minds about whether "Savages," Don Winslow's marvelous, adrenaline-juiced roller coaster of a novel, is a rookie reader's best introduction to his work.
