Language and gender Wikipedia

Research into the many possible relationships, intersections and tensions between language and gender is diverse. It crosses disciplinary boundaries, and, as a bare minimum, could be said to encompass work notionally housed within applied linguistics, linguistic anthropology, conversation analysis, cultural studies, feminist media studies, feminist psychology, gender studies, interactional

Territoriality nonverbal communication Wikipedia

Territoriality is a term associated with nonverbal communication that refers to how people use space to communicate ownership or occupancy of areas and possessions. The anthropological concept branches from the observations of animal ownership behaviors. Personal space can be regarded as a bubble with a person at the center, forming an area which the person does not wish to be invaded.

Communities Voices and Insights Washington Times

There is a historical truth about the American economy -- it is deep, wide, and resilient. Managed economies, or communism, by contrast, may work for a period of time, due to favorable economic winds.

Under Our Skin The Seattle Times

This video resonated with me because: I work with an organization that was accused of systemic racism a year ago. It was a hard thing to hear, but that fact is that it was true: we had an all-white board, and predominantly white participants. We didn't mean to, like one of the people said in the video, we weren't a bunch of evil people trying to exclude people of colour.
