Empire Rising Trident Deception 2 by Rick Campbell

Empire Rising I m having a hard time figuring out how to rate this book. So I ll be safe and pick three stars; right in the middle. Empire Rising by Thomas Kelly Goodreads Share book

I was excited about "Empire Rising" when I saw it on the New York Times' "100 Notable Books of 2005" list but Thomas Kelly's novel proved ultimately disappointing. It has all the ingredients of great historical fiction: New York City, the Empire State Building, racial tension, the Great Depression and a plethora of Tammany Hall politicians and neighborhood gangsters.

Empire Rising book by Sam Barone Thriftbooks

Dawn of Empire, was an impressive debut for Sam Barone. I thoroughly loved that book and was keenly awaiting his follow up to see if he could build on that effort. Once again Sam has produced a winner with Empire Rising. Barone returns to the cradle of civilization in this, his sequel to Dawn of Empire.

Empire Rising by Rick Campbell Paperback Barnes Noble

This book is a sequel, of sorts, and a number of the characters carry through from the first book. I like that style. That is why I read just about anything written by Tom Clancy, Nelson DeMille, Brad Thor, Vince Flynn (RIP) and authors like them.
