Zealot questions what we thought we knew about Jesus of Nazareth even as it affirms the radical and transformative nature of his life and mission. ### What Jesus Wasn't Zealot Jewish Review of Books

The core thesis of Zealot is that the real Jesus of Nazareth was an illiterate peasant from the Galilee who zealously, indeed monomaniacally, aspired to depose the Roman governor of Palestine and become the King of Israel. Aslan s essentially political portrayal of Jesus thus hardly, if at all, resembles the depiction of the spiritual giant, indeed God incarnate, found in the Gospels and the letters of Paul.
