RELATED BOOK :

Eye of the Needle by Ken Follett Goodreads

Eye of the Needle tells the story of a German master spy The Needle and his attempt to uncover the plans of the English army during World War 2 (a few weeks before D-Day). This book was a little light on the espionage and too much focused on the generic thriller formula.

Eye of the Needle Book Review Readers Lane

It s the crowning glory of Eye of the Needle, which takes a good story and makes it into a palpable experience. The audio book rendition is read by a complete cast. Sound effects, including the distortion of radio transmissions, make the story into a full, theatrical production as does the usage of music to set a tone at the beginning and end of each disc.

EYE OF THE NEEDLE by Ken Follett Kirkus Reviews

But perhaps it's just as well: if Follett's debut were flawless, he'd have nowhere to go. As it is, Eye of the Needle introduces a fresh if not especially distinctive voice in suspense--and is easily the best first novel in the espionage genre since The Day of the Jackal.
