Irish neutrality during World War II Wikipedia

The policy of Irish neutrality during World War II was adopted by the Oireachtas at the instigation of the Taoiseach amon de Valera upon the outbreak of World War II in Europe. It was maintained throughout the conflict, in spite of several German air raids by aircraft that missed their intended British targets and attacks on Ireland's shipping fleet by Allies and Axis alike.

Irish Champ Recipe Allrecipes com

Looks similar to colcannon, but champ is native to the North of Ireland. It's made by blending scallions or green onions with creamy mashed potatoes. Great on its own, served steaming hot with extra butter which will melt through it. But it's also the perfect side dish for good quality sausages.
