Seashells by the Seashore by Marianne Berkes Robert

I also think it was the first book she wrote. As she read the book, she held up the corresponding shells. The children (all 100 or so of them) were entranced. This was in Florida. These kids had grown up with seashells, seen them all their young lives, and yet after Seashells by the Seashore, the kids were looking at shells in a new light.

Seashells Spells Caramels by Erin Johnson Goodreads

I absolutely loved this book, the characters and the storyline. It has been awhile since I have flown through a book this quickly. I cannot wait to go on to the second book in the series! Seashells, Spells & Caramels was full of humor, twists and turns and a hint of romance. I loved it and highly recommend it!
