Most actors would define a monologue as a dramatic speech. But the actual definition is more specific than that. For your purposes, a monologue is a scene where only one character speaks. The other character listens. And here's the catch you're going to imagine that other character standing in front of you.

Tips on Finding a Monologue: A piece that fits your type as an actor. Keep it short! In most auditions, you'll only be performing a 1 to 2 minute monologue. Pick a monologue that is in the moment. Try not to do a piece that has you telling a story. Look for a monologue where the character wants something from the other actor.
