I read this book because I love the Mistress of the Art of Death series so much and even though City of Shadows, set in 1920s and 1930s Berlin, has no connection to Franklin's other books it's excellent too.

The City of Shadows Stefan Gillespie 1 by Michael Russell

The City of Shadows is quite simply a brilliant crime novel. Although his debut novel, Michael Russell has a wealth of experience as a television scriptwriter (Midsomer Murders, A Touch of Frost, Emmerdale) and it shows in the quality of the story, which works at every level - plotting, sense of place, historical contextualisation
