I ordered the fate of the dwarves 2 days after it was released and had to wait 19 days before it finally arrived (I ordered through PBshopus). It was hard for me to read at first because it wasn't his general writing style but, I got over that quickly and started to become more enthused with the book.

The Fate of the Dwarves by Markus Heitz Goodreads

The Fate of the Dwarves is the final installment in the four book Dwarves series by German, Markus Heitz. Translated into english by Sheelagh Alabaster this book is the height of the series. A book of greater length than many, it is none the less one that seems to fly due to the fact you cannot put it down for a minute.

The Fate of the Dwarves by Markus Heitz book review

The Fate of the Dwarves is the fourth book in the Dwarves series and like many books before it, and many to come there, are traces of true magic, wit and secrets untold; unfortunately these aspects of the story have been greatly under-capitalised in the conclusion to the Dwarves saga.
