Sistah Vegan Black Female Vegans Speak on Food Identity

Sistah Vegan is a series of narratives, critical essays, poems, and reflections from a diverse community of North American black-identified vegans. Collectively, these activists are de-colonizing their bodies and minds via whole-foods veganism. By kicking junk-food habits, the more than thirty contributors all show the way toward longer, stronger, and healthier lives.

List of vegans Wikipedia

Veganism involves observing a vegan diet which is a diet that includes no animals or animal products of any kind. It can extend to an entire lifestyle that precludes animal products from all aspects of life. Besides food, vegans may also choose to avoid clothes that utilise products such as leather and fur, cosmetics that have been tested on animals, and blood sports such as bullfighting and

Why Weak Men Want Submissive Women Surviving Dating

Female submission is pushed by fathers, pastors, deacons and ministers and society as a whole. The brainwashing is complete when women make statements that women should be submissive to men because it is a woman's nature. It is not in a woman's "nature" to be anything but great and powerful self-actualizing citizens of the world. Yet various cultures and religions have limited female options
