Tawny owl The Wildlife Trusts

About The tawny owl is our largest common owl and is known for making the familiar 'twit twoo' owl call during the night and early hours. Yet this call this is actually made by both a male and female owl calling to each other - the female makes a 'ke-wick' sound and the male answers with something more like 'hoo-hoo-oo'.

The Enigma of the Green Man History of the Green Man

The heyday of the Green Man, though, only occurs after the first millennium CE, particularly the 12th to 15th Century. From the 11th and 12th Century onwards, Green Men are often seen incorporated as a carved decorative ornamentation on British, French, German and other European churches and other buildings (both ecclesiastical and, less commonly, secular).
