20 Of The Best Historical Mystery Books BookRiot com

According to the Historical Novel Society, historical fiction can be any work set more than 50 years ago, or which was written by someone who wasn't alive during the events described, which would require the author to rely on research to describe it. Alternate history, pseudo-history, timeslip, historical fantasy, and multiple timeline novels all count as historical fiction as well. Of course, there is really no one easy way to define the entire genre of historical fiction.

Historical Mystery Novels sldirectory com

I have recently discovered the pleasure of reading historical mystery novels. I have found them to be well written and frequently less violent than their modern day counterparts. The detectives use their brains to solve crimes rather than resorting to laboratory tests and other methods of modern forensic analysis.
