What are the most interesting books on New Orleans history

"New Orleans: A House-Watcher's Guide" by LLoyd Vogt! I bought this when my wife and I lived in Uptown. We loved checking out all the cool old homes, and this book details the history of each neighborhood based on the architectural design of the homes (shotgun homes in uptown vs ranch style homes in lakeview).

Beautiful Crescent A History of New Orleans Joan B

Could New Orleans have withstood the wrath of Katrina? Read about it on page 208 A-B (just added). Beautiful Crescent is a good short basic history of New Orleans--and more. It's a foundation, a springboard, and appetizer--just enough factual political history, just enough "people" history to tantalize and whet the appetite.
