In One Person John Irving

A personal introduction of In One Person from John Irving. In One Person is about a young bisexual man who falls in love with an older transgender woman Miss Frost, the librarian in a Vermont public library. The bi guy is the main character, but two transgender women are the heroes of this novel in the sense that these two characters are the ones my bisexual narrator, Billy Abbott, most looks up to.

IN ONE PERSON by John Irving Kirkus Reviews

Billy Dean (aka Billy Abbott) has a difficult time holding it together in one person, for his bisexuality pulls him in (obviously) two different directions. Billy comes of age in what is frequently, and erroneously, billed as a halcyon and more innocent age, the 1950s.
