This book gave me the chills half the time because of Dimitri. He's my favorite character in this series because he's Dimitri Belikov, the god-like guardian and mentor who is powerful, controlled, mature and the man who looks after Rose.

Promise of Blood Powder Mage 1 by Brian McClellan

There wasn t a single thing I didn t like about Promise of Blood. The best components were the characters. It struck me as profound in several places of the book how damn good McClellan was as creating deep connections between his characters to the point where it felt like reading about real people (making it all the more poignant when something happened to one of them).
